The hases official bulletin we have be from Cairco is that the population of the city has, during the last year, been greefy argmanted from the other river towns by men waiting for the river grain trait to commence, and as these, to the samber of several thousands, had become parquers, the Legislature had to make an appropriation from the Legislature at that time, as truly as the measures of Congress measuring after the members of Congress measuring after the embers of Congress measures the second States constituted Congress. We showed that if the rule now applied by the Post to the case of indiana had been applied by the proof to Congress, during the robetion, not a single constitutional semantises all could have been passed.
